

Knowing Our Power: A Talk with Gloria Steinem

Presented by the Women's Studies Center

Gloria Steinem is a renowned writer, lecturer and activist who has been involved as a leader in feminist and social justice movements for over 40 years. Her last visit to South Florida was in 1972 as a co-founder of the National Women's Political Caucus. Steinem travels worldwide as an advocate for equality and is currently at work on her book, Road to the Heart: America As if Everyone Mattered.

Join us for a dialogue and community conversation on the 2012 election as a "turning point" in our national future. Hear how issues in the election will affect you in your daily life and how you can take action!

The event is free and open to the public. Metered parking is available in the Gold or Blue garages. Enter via 107th Ave and SW 16th Street for access to both.
