

WST 3641 – LGBT and Beyond

Fall 2016

Interested in learning about LGBT life across societies around the world? This course is designed to teach students about significant historical movements in the gay and lesbian movement, as well as explore current social, legal, and political issues. Discussions will include such topics as gender, sexual orientation, religion, family issues, and contributions to arts and literature.

Weekdays: Tuesdays & Thursdays

Time: 11:00am – 12:15pm

Location: Biscayne Bay Campus

Room: AC1 226

Instructor: Gisela P. Vega, Associate Director, MPAS LGBTQA Initiatives